Referee-in-Chief Handbook

Thank you for considering filling the role of a Referee-in-chief (RIC) at an Alberta Soccer Association (ASA) Provincial Championship. At all ASA tournaments, the Referee-in-chief is a key figure, essential to a successful competition.

As Referee-in-chief, you will be in charge of all officials at one particular venue. This includes, but is not limited to, scheduling officials, assessing and mentoring officials, chairing a pre-tournament meeting, dealing with referee related issues and officiating in emergency circumstances.

The Referee-in-chief at each competition is also considered to be a senior ASA official, and as a result you may be asked to assist the ASA Representative during discipline hearings and protests.

Responsibilities:

This document outlines the responsibilities of an RIC, separating them into three distinct categories:

1. prior to the competition.
2. during the competition.
3. after the competition.

 - All assigned officials must be registered and in good standing with the Alberta Soccer Association. If necessary, the ASA Office can provide you with a list of officials in your area.
 - Officials scheduled to the Provincial Championships who are not registered with the ASA will not be paid.
 - Review the current ASA Provincial Rule Book, and consult with the ASA office and Local Organizing Committee (LOC) regarding any special rules or regulations specific to the Provincial Championships.
 - Chair a pre-tournament meeting for all officials, detailing the rules and regulations specific to the Provincial Championships, and outlining your expectations and the expectations of the ASA.
 - Review the tie breaking and results procedures beforehand with the ASA Representative and ensure all officials are aware of any special procedures or required outcomes prior to kickoff.
 - Provide a cell phone number to ASA for communication purposes during the competition.

2. During the Competition:

- Be in attendance at all times during the tournament, and check in at tournament headquarters on a regular basis.
- Post a copy of the tournament schedule and competition rules in the referee change room(s).
- Be available to officiate at any time in the event of an emergency.
 - The RIC shall not assign themselves to officiate in any game.
- Ensure prompt completion of discipline reports, and if needed, be a member on the Discipline Committee.
- Make appointments for the final day based on the officials' performance throughout the tournament.
