5. Individuals acknowledge that their Social Media activity may be viewed by anyone, including the Organization or other Individuals.
6. If the Organization unofficially engages with an Individual through Social Media (such as by retweeting a tweet or sharing a photo on Facebook) the Individual may, at any time, ask the Organization to cease this engagement.
7. When using Social Media, an Individual must model appropriate behaviour befitting the Individual's role and status in connection with the Organization.
8. Removing content from Social Media after it has been posted (either publicly or privately) does not excuse the Individual from being subject to the Discipline and Complaints Policy.
9. An Individual who believes that another Individual's Social Media activity is inappropriate or may violate the policies and procedures of the Organization should report the matter in the manner outlined by the Discipline and Complaints Policy.
