APPENDIX A

ARBITRATION

Interpretation

1. In these rules, “Tribunal” mean the arbitrators appointed under these rules.

Commencement of Arbitration

2. In order to commence an arbitration under these rules, the claimant (the “Claimant”) must serve on the other party (the “Respondent”) a written notice of arbitration (the “Notice of Arbitration”) which must set out:
 - a. The names and addresses of the parties to the arbitration;
 - b. A brief statement describing the nature and circumstances of the dispute and setting out the relief claimed;
 - c. The name and address of the Claimant’s appointed arbitrator, who must
 - i. be a member of the Law Society of Alberta or a Chartered Arbitrator under the ADR Institute of Canada; and
 - ii. have confirmed in writing to the Claimant his or her willingness and availability to accept the appointment.
3. Within 14 days of service of the Notice of Arbitration, the Respondent must serve on the Claimant a response to the Notice of Arbitration (the “Response”) which must set out:
 - a. an admission or denial of all or part of the claims set out in the Notice of Arbitration;
 - b. a brief statement of the nature and circumstances of the Respondent’s denial, if any;

- c. the name and address of the Respondent's appointment to act as an arbitrator who must
 - i. be a member of the Law Society of Alberta or a Chartered Arbitrator under the ADR Institute of Canada, and
 - ii. have confirmed to the Respondent in writing his or her willingness and availability to accept the appointment.
4. If a Respondent fails to appoint an arbitrator within 14 days of the Response,
 - a. the Executive Director of the ASA shall name the party's arbitrator, unless the ASA is a party to the Arbitration;
 - b. if the ASA is a party to the arbitration, the General Secretary of the Canadian Soccer Association shall name the party's arbitrator.
5. The appointment under article 4 shall be made within 21 days of the service of the notice of the service of the Notice of the Claim.
6. The Respondent has no right to oppose the appointment of such arbitrator.
7. Within 14 days of the service of the Response the two arbitrators must appoint a third arbitrator to chair the panel of arbitrators, who must be
 - a. A member of the Law Society of Alberta;
 - b. A judge or retired judge; or
 - c. A Chartered Arbitrator under the ADR Institute of Canada.

- a. the Executive Director of the ASA shall appoint the third arbitrator, unless the ASA is a party to the Arbitration;
 - b. if the ASA is a party to the arbitration, the General Secretary of the Canadian Soccer Association shall appoint the third arbitrator
9. The appointment under article 8 shall be made within 21 days of the service of the service of the Response.
 10. Despite anything in these Rules, the Claimant and the Respondent may agree to the appointment of a single arbitrator, in which case that arbitrator constitutes the Chair and the Tribunal.
 11. Each arbitrator must
 - a. at the time of appointment be independent of the parties, and
 - b. at all times during the arbitration must remain and be independent of the parties and be impartial.
 12. If for any reason, including a successful challenge to an arbitrator's appointment or continued participation under article 11, an arbitrator becomes unable to act or refuses to act, a replacement shall be appointed in the same manner as the original appointment.
 13. The Tribunal shall meet within 14 days of the appointment of the Chair and establish the procedures for the arbitration including dates for the arbitration. The procedures must provide each party with a fair and reasonable opportunity to present evidence and argument to the Tribunal.
 14. The arbitration must begin no later than 60 days after the service of the Notice of Claim, unless the parties agree otherwise in writing.
 15. The Tribunal may adjourn the arbitration if the duty of fairness to a party or an exceptional circumstance would require that an adjournment be granted.
 16. A party at an arbitration may be represented by a member of the law society or another individual of their choice.

17. The Tribunal has the power:

- a. establish procedures for the hearing;
- b. to make interim directions, including issuing interim orders that direct that an action not be taken or that an action be taken pending the final decision in the arbitration;
- c. determine any questions as to its own jurisdiction, subject to the superintending power of the Court under the Arbitration Act of Alberta ;
- d. summarily determine the claim;
- e. appoint an expert to report to it on a matter;
- f. require the parties to attend preliminary or procedural meetings;
- g. give any lawful directions it considers necessary to ensure the expeditious, economical, just and final determination of the dispute.

18. The parties must do all things necessary for the proper and expeditious conduct of the arbitration and must comply without delay with any directions of the Tribunal.

19. At the conclusion of the arbitration, the Tribunal has the power to:

- a. dismiss the complaint or determine that the complaint is well founded in whole or in part;
- b. provide a binding direction to any party to the arbitration;
- c. order the setting aside of any direction or action by a party to the arbitration; and
- d. if the Tribunal determines that a party has
 - i. Acted in a high handed or abusive manner or acted in bad faith in making a decision or determination that was the subject of the arbitration;
 - ii. Made a claim that the Tribunal determines to be frivolous and vexatious; or
 - iii. Acted itself during the arbitration in a manner that deserves sanction, including disregarding a direction of the tribunal or unnecessarily prolonging the proceedings
- e. the Tribunal may award casts against that party on an indemnity basis.
